Subject:- Indian Administrative Service/India Police Service-War Service recruits appointed initially to the junior scale - Fixation of their pay on promotion to the senior time-scale.

- - - -

Sir,

A question has been raised as to whether a War Service officer of the Indian Administrative Service of the Indian Police Service should on promotion to the senior grade of the service be entitled to pay at the stage in the senior-scale corresponding to the pay drawn by him in the junior scale at the time of promotion even if at that time he has rendered less than six years' service from the date of his appointment. I am directed to point out that in the case of war service candidates the service counts from their years of allotment and not from the actual dates of appointment to the Indian Administrative Service/India Police service. The initial pay of the war service candidates in the junior scale was in fact fixed on this basis. On promotion to the senior-scale, therefore, they are entitled to pay at the corresponding stage therein as shown in the statements annexed.

2. As the corresponding stage for the first six years, both in the Indian Administrative Service and in the Indian Police Service is the minimum of the senior-scale officers who at the time of their promotion have not completed six years(from the years of their allotment will automatically be restricted to the minimum of the senior time-scale.

Yours faithfully,

Sd/- R.K. Rangan,
Under Secretary to the Government of India.
